Hello fellow Tequila Amigos, I just recently purchased a bottle of Jose Cuervo Platino Reserva De LA Familia by hearing about it from Tequila Guy and I must say Thanks for creating this Forum, it has helped me make wiser choices and improved my Collection. I do have a question for ya. The Dealer that sold me the Tequila, spoke of a unique Tequila which he sold that had a Crystal Airplane in it much like that of the Milagro Select Barrel Reserva Agava plant. He forgot the name but said it was truly worth having. Do you know what this Tequila is ? Thanks
